Bombs Again Hit Inside N. Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. bombers struck inside North Vietnam and along its frontiers for a third successive day, while other allied aircraft wiped out two of Hanoi's base camps in South Vietnam causing heavy enemy losses, military spokesmen said today.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces mounted a fourth day of intensified shelling attacks in the South. The South Vietnamese command said a provincial capital and three district towns were shelled. Two South Vietnamese were killed and 11 wounded.

The air attack inside North Vietnam Thursday was triggered, the U.S. Command said, when an anti-aircraft gun fired at two Air Force fighter-bombers on a mission against Hanoi's Ho Chi Minh supply trail in Laos.

The attack occurred in the Ban Karai pass on the Laos-North Vietnam border, about 37 miles north of the demilitarized zone. A command spokesman, Maj. Richard Gardner, said results of the U.S. attack were not known but the American jets were not hit.

It was the 62nd strike by American bombers inside North Vietnam this year under President Nixon's protective reaction policy.

U.S. bombers have stepped up raids against the Ho Chi Minh trail in anticipation of the annual dry season push of war materials into South Vietnam and Cambodia. The monsoons should end next month, and the North Vietnamese are trying to repair the trail.

U.S. B52 bombers pounded North Vietnamese storage depots on both sides of South Vietnam's border with Laos and attacked supply points and bunker complexes in the southern half of the DMZ.

Further south U.S. tactical fighter-bombers and helicopter gunships destroyed North Vietnamese base camps 60 miles northwest of Saigon and 56 miles south of Da Nang, spokesmen said.

Allied communiques said that 50 enemy troops were killed in the attacks and 100 bunkers, a truck and 25 Soviet-made 122mm rockets were destroyed.

The base northwest of Saigon was believed to be a staging area for a North Vietnamese sapper battalion that attacked the South Vietnamese Tay Ninh base camp Monday, killing 21 Saigon troops and wounding 64.

All 215,000 U.S. troops in South Vietnam went on a two-week alert Thursday barring them from populated areas except on official business. The alert is aimed at keeping the Americans clear of possible Viet Cong attacks and political disturbances aimed at disrupting South Vietnam's presidential election Oct. 3.

Heavy Rains for Portions of Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Portions of Arkansas will receive up to two inches of rain as a massive rain front moves into the state today.

The National Weather Service says the main air mass is moving toward the northeast and very little temperature drop is expected to accompany the rain.

The rain will continue through Saturday. However, the weather service says that the rain will have stopped in time for the football game Saturday between the University of Arkansas and Tulsa at Fayetteville.

The highs Thursday ranged from 76 at Fort Smith to 83 at Jonesboro.

Overnight lows were Fayetteville, 61; Harrison, 58; Jonesboro, 58; Pine Bluff, 64; Memphis, 61; Little Rock, 62; Fort Smith, 62; Texarkana, 65; and El Dorado, 74.

Quick Action on Tax Bills Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the Senate Finance Committee predicts quick Senate action on President Nixon's tax proposals.

"The Ways and Means action greatly improves change for prompt passage of this legislation," Louisiana's Russell B. Long said Thursday.

"It was my thought all along that the President's original quest was unfairly weighted in favor of tax reductions for big business," he added.

The main change by the House committee was changing the proposed first year's 10 per

U.S. Facing First Test on 2-China Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States won the first test of strength on its U.N. two-China formula today when the General Assembly rejected a request to bar the plan from the agenda.

The vote was 65 to put the U.S. item on its agenda and 47 against. There were 15 abstentions.

The U.S. item was a vehicle for a 17-nation resolution that would seat Communist China in both the assembly and the Security Council and leave Nationalist China in the assembly.

The assembly had already agreed without a vote to include in its agenda a pro-Peking item used as a handle for a resolution to oust Nationalist China completely and seat Communist China.

Another U.S. resolution would make any attempt to oust Taiwan an important question, requiring a two-thirds vote for passage rather than a simple majority.

Sponsors of a rival Albanian resolution that would seat Peking and oust Taiwan said they would oppose a recommendation of the assembly's steering committee to include the U.S. two-Chinas proposal on the agenda.

But U.S. Ambassador George Bush told newsmen, "If they try to knock out our item, we're going to fight."

Middle Age—You Start to Think Who to Leave Out of Will

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — You're getting middle-aged if— You can think of more people you'd like to leave out of a will than put in it.

Every dawning when you awake you lie in bed for 15 full minutes trying to think of a good worthwhile reason for getting up and facing life. There is none. Habit is all that gets you up.

You decide it is high time you taught your wife how to put up the storm windows herself. After all, that's what she'd have to do if something ever happened to you.

One fine morning you study your face in the mirror and your heart leaps with horror as you detect a hair growing in your ear. The color of the hair is gray.

You quit sending away box tops because you can't think of anything you really want back. For everything that makes you smile there are two that make you frown and five that make you yawn.

Every personal letter you write contains some comment on the current state of the weather, and the comment is rarely laudatory.

When you get a cold, it hangs on two days longer than it used to—and takes one more bottle of bourbon to cure.

Bumpers Not Obituaries in State at Signings

LITTLE ROCK, AP. — News-men discovered Thursday that 13 proclamations signed by Gov. Dale Bumpers that were dated with days on which the governor was out of town had been filed in the secretary of state's office.

The secretary of state's files were checked after Lt. Gov. Bob Riley was quoted last week as saying that Bumpers' staff had not called on him to perform duties of the governor when Bumpers is out of town.

The lieutenant governor becomes the chief executive under the state Constitution when the governor leaves the state and Riley was quoted as saying that he was "totally ignored" when Bumpers was at the National Governors Conference in Puerto Rico.

The fact that Bumpers was out of state when the documents were signed raised questions about their legality, although Bumpers' aides said the proclamations were signed by the governor either before he left or after he returned.

Eleven of the documents were routine ceremonial proclamations such as one declaring "Johnny Cash Day" in Arkansas, but two concerned executive clemency.

One was the governor's pardon of Earl Doles, sentenced March 11 in Baxter County to a year in prison for illegal possession of marijuana and the other was the commutation of the life sentence of Rudy Thomas Hickman to 50 years, 9 months and 19 days. Hickman was sentenced Nov. 8, 1964, in Lawrence County for first-degree murder.

Bumpers agreed with a newsman's assessment that the proclamations might not be legal since he was out of state on the date they were issued. He said he would issue the documents again.

Lobbyists Attracted in Opposition

WASHINGTON, AP. — Opposing lobbyists are attracted in opposition to key parts of a bill setting up a Consumer Protection Agency—it is too weak for Ralph Nader, too strong for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

However, according to the Democratic chairman and ranking Republican member of the House Government Operations Committee, the legislation is a compromise creating the best balanced program that can withstand congressional tests.

Consumer advocate Nader charged that the bill emerging from a Government Operations subcommittee Thursday "was stripped of its integrity and effectiveness."

Nader maintained that the White House "has assumed a strong role behind the scenes, disciplining Republican members and holding out carrots to some Democratic members."

While declining comment on the bill's details until administration lawyers look over the provisions, Joseph Dawson, information officer for the White House Office of Consumer Affairs, said Nader's charges are inaccurate. "No one from our office has been there trying to hurt that bill," Dawson said.

Chairman Chet Holifield, D-Calif., and Rep. Frank Horton, R-N.Y., a top GOP member of the subcommittee, denied Nader's accusations. "No pressure has been brought on me by the administration in any way," said Holifield. Horton called Nader's charges "absolutely false."

A spokesman for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, a leading lobby for business interests in the outcome of the legislation, said: "We're not opposed to a consumer advocacy, but the way it is in the bill now, to our way of thinking, is just plain horrible."

The bill would establish an independent consumer agency in the executive branch, would give status of law to the White House's Office of Consumer Affairs, and would aim at protecting "the consumer interest in administrative proceedings" of federal agencies.

The head of CPA would be nominated by the president and confirmed by the Senate, with no set term of office. The size of the agency would be determined by the administration, with financing by Congress. CPA could use the power of publicity on complaints but could not take another federal agency to court.

broadcast nationally by some radio networks.

At a Sept. 9 news conference, Nixon spoke of wage-price restraints on major industries following the Nov. 13 expiration of the current freeze. This was widely interpreted at the time as indicating Nixon leaned toward very selective curbs.

His new pronouncement, however, embraced all segments of the economy, although he emphasized that his Phase 2 program to be announced in mid-October will concentrate on areas which, in the absence of restraints, could contribute most strongly to continued inflation.

The chief executive was asked by one member of a 10-man panel how soon he planned to return to a "free economy."

Nixon said his wage-price stabilization effort will continue until we have cooled the fires of inflation.

Most panelists were leading members of Detroit's industrial-mercantile-financial community and the questions reflected business concerns and viewpoints.

cent followed by a 5 per cent investment tax credit for industry to a flat 7 per cent.

Long said if the House clears the tax bill on Oct. 5 as tentatively scheduled, his committee hearings probably will begin Oct. 7.

Long also said he would like to see some attempt to legislate lower interest rates, but Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., chairman of the House Banking Committee, said there is no firm evidence in the money markets of a trend to lower interest rates.

In other economic developments:

—The Federal Home Loan Bank Board reported interest rates on conventional home loans advanced in August for the third straight month.

—Secretary of the Treasury John Connally said the administration will stand on its position against a change in the price of gold.

Youths Perish in Dog House

Fire officials said it appeared Sean Rabbit and Dale Kouchnerkavich were playing with matches when bedding in the dog house caught fire.

Texas House Speaker Is Indicted

By ROBERT HEARD Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — House Speaker Gus Mutscher and two of his chief lieutenants have been indicted on bribery charges arising out of the Texas stock scandal.

Mutscher, the highest state official to face criminal charges since Gov. James W. Ferguson was impeached 1917, was indicted Thursday.

"I think it's a politically motivated thing, designed to destroy me politically and completely destroy my future," Mutscher said.

The Travis County Grand Jury indicted Mutscher on charges of accepting a bribe and conspiring to accept a bribe.

The grand jury indicted Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth, Speaker pro tempore, and Mutscher's chief administrative assistant, Rush McGinty, on charges of conspiring to accept a bribe.

John Osorio, former state insurance commissioner and president in 1969 of National Bankers Life Insurance Co., now in receivership, was indicted on a charge of filing a false report with the state board of insurance.

In a special report, the grand jury also took a swipe at other "high state officials" for their "questionable practices." Some Texas lawmakers have been "too busy granting political favors" and being influenced in exchange for "turning a fast buck," the jury said.

Mutscher posted $20,000 bond. McGinty posted $10,000 bond.

Shannon reportedly was prepared to post $10,000 bond in Fort Worth, where Travis County Sheriff T. O. Lang mailed an arrest warrant.

Osorio reportedly would post $10,000 bond later.

Dist. Atty. Bob Smith said Thursday no trial would take place in the case until at least December and perhaps not until June 1972.

The case centers around two controversial banking bills passed by a special session of the Texas Legislature in September 1969.

Houston promoter Frank Sharp reportedly sought passage of the bills—which would have permitted state banks to insure their deposits with a state corporation.

Sharp has said he had a "tacit agreement" with Mutscher involving passage of the banking bills and a loan to Mutscher from Sharp's bank to buy stock in National Bankers Life Insurance Co., controlled by Sharp.

Mutscher flatly denied Sharp's allegations.

Thinks State Tax System Is Illegal

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A study of the property tax system in Arkansas says the system operates so inequitably that it almost certainly would be declared unconstitutional if challenged in court.

The report is concerned mainly with the state's system of assessing farm, pasture and timber land but its conclusions touch the whole system of ad valorem taxation.

The report was prepared for Gov. Dale Bumpers and the Arkansas General Assembly by John R. Pagan of Little Rock, a summer research assistant to Richard W. Longing, director of the state Commerce Department.

The report recommends several steps for strengthening state methods of dealing with inequities among the 75 counties in assessing property.

The report said the site-index approach to assessing rural land would help equalize assessments over the state, introduce greater efficiency into the administration of ad valorem taxes, stop the loss of millions of dollars in taxes for local governments each year, stabilize the tax base and protect the environment in the timberlands

Bumpers ordered the study of the site-index system early this year. He appointed a commission to hold a hearing on the subject. The hearing was held July 15 and most of the commission members endorsed the site-index system.

Site index bases a piece of property's value on what it is capable of producing rather than on its market value.

Pagan made four major recommendations as a result of his own research:

— Creation of a state Tax Equalization Commission, which would be a quasi-judicial agency empowered to conduct hearings on inequities and to require counties to adjust assessments to comply with the state Constitution and statutes.

— A new law giving the Real Estate Manual published by the state Assessment Coordination Division the clear standing of law. The manual is supposed to be the guide for county assessors to assess the value of property, but Pagan said it was widely ignored, resulting in about 75 different methods of assessing property.

— Adoption of the site-index system for assessing real property uniformly throughout the state.

— Stronger penalty provisions in the state assessment law so that turnback funds to local governments would be withheld if assessments fell below 19 or 19.5 per cent. Twenty per cent would be the maximum on assessments.

Chrysler-Plymouth introduces the 1972's. Built to stay new longer.

We've made quite a few changes in our cars for 1972. A lot of them you can see right away. Like the new looks of our Fury. And the new interiors and options we're offering this year. But more important are some of the things you can't see. The kind of things we're doing to fulfill our commitment—we're dedicated to building cars that will run better and last longer than any car we've ever built before.

So whatever Chrysler-Plymouth car you're interested in—from the little Cricket to the compact Duster, from the mid-size Satellite to the luxurious Chrysler—you can be sure it was built with this commitment in mind.

Coming through with the kind of car America wants.

Buy now while prices are still frozen.

1972 Cricket prices will increase slightly due to supplemental import duty.

promotion Time

IT'S Promotion Time . . . Sunday School Commencement time. Every youngster longs for this time of year. They have done well and must be promoted. They are moving ahead, making progress in the teachings of God. In that there is delight.

Perhaps Promotion time should be just as important to adults as to the young. Maybe we should check our progress in Christian living. If we had to earn our yearly promotion where would we be? Are we going to church more? Have we increased our giving? Do we help more in various church programs? Do our lives reflect deeper religious beliefs? Would my pastor O. K. my promotion? Would my family give me a card? How about my relatives, friends and business associates? It is Promotion time and can we meet the challenge? Can we truly say it is Time for us To Move Up.

So They May See

Psalm 91

So They May Hear

HE THAT DWELLETH in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; 6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

BECAUSE THOU hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

16. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Four Year Old Swallows Pin

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—A few months ago, while playing with her doll, my 4-year-old daughter swallowed a straight pin. The pin went down her windpipe and lodged in her right lung. It stopped in the bottom lobe of her right lung. She was rushed to a lung specialist. He went down her windpipe many times trying to remove the pin. But he could not reach it. She had no complications except just the pin in her lung for five months. The doctors kept planning lung surgery.

Calendar of Events The Lonoke Baptist Church announces the Installation service for their Pastor Elect, Rev. L. Bennie Beard, Jr. Several churches and individuals are programmed. The general public is invited.

The Rev. L. B. Beard announces a call meeting of the Community of Hope and vicinity. Especially those who are concerned about the minority and underprivileged. The main point of discussion will be centered around the support of a newly formed non-profit corporation that has been organized for several Southwestern Counties. Counties included are Nevada, Hempstead, Howard, Miller, Lafayette, Little River, and Sevier. There is a small amount of Federal Funds available to help operate a small staff of four people. The project is designed to help the small business man. However, we must have the backing of the people, hopefully from each County. Giants Need Combination of 4 Games

By KEN RARROPPT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Break up the San Francisco Giants ... and wake up the Los Angeles Dodgers.

With just a week to go in the nervous National League West race, it appears the Dodgers need a more-than-giant effort to catch front-running San Francisco.

"I don't think Los Angeles can overcome their lead," said Houston Manager Harry Walker after the Giants knocked off his Astros 2-1 Thursday night and took a reasonably comfortable three-game lead.

You know, he could be right: Each team has six games left and any combination of four San Francisco victories or Los Angeles defeats will hand the Giants their first title since 1962, when they won the National League pennant.

"This victory has got to be a big break for us," said Gaylord Perry, the big San Francisco right-hander who pitched a stunning three-hitter. "Especially big in the Astrodom, where we haven't won much the last few years."

Perry's power pitching followed a superlative performance by Juan Marichal, who spun a six-hit, one-run job Wednesday night.

It gave hope to the Giants' stretch run.

"Those two can win it for us," said Manager Charlie Fox of the Giants. "Pitching is the name of the game."

In the other National League, games the Pittsburgh Pirates bounced the St. Louis Cardinals 5-0; the New York Mets beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4 and the Philadelphia Phillies tripped the Montreal Expos 6-4.

The Chicago White Sox whitewashed the California Angels 5-0 and the Oakland A's nipped the Milwaukee Brewers 5-4 in American League games.

Winning in the Astrodom not only boosted the Giants' lead in the West, but also gave them a spiritual lift. They had won only five of 30 games at Houston before winning two of their three-game set.

The two straight victories, incidentally, composed San Francisco's longest winning streak since early September before the Giants started a slide that cost them most of a once-commanding 8½-game lead over the Dodgers.

"It's been a tough two weeks for us," said Perry. "We got together and talked about tonight's game. We wanted to make sure everyone talked it up on the bench and made the plays on the field."

"Things are just going the Giants' way now," said Walker. "Things went their way right away Thursday night when often-injured Willie McCovey smashed his 18th home run in the fourth inning to give the Giants a 1-0 lead. They scored the winning run when McCovey was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded, forcing in a fifth-inning tally."

Perry then gave up one of his three hits, a home run to light-hitting John Mayberry in the bottom of the fifth.

The Giants now move to Cincinnati for a three-game set starting tonight and finish up the regular season with a three-game series at San Diego. The Dodgers take on Atlanta Friday, Saturday and Sunday and wind up with a three-game series at home with Houston.

Willie Stargell drilled a two-run homer, his 46th, and Nelson Briles pitched a six-hitter as Pittsburgh beat St. Louis, Stargell's 420-foot blast pulled him into a tie with Atlanta's Hank

Thinks Porks Will Overcome Tulsa 42-7

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Coach Claude Gibson may have been correct when he was asked to assess the chances of the Tulsa team Saturday against Arkansas.

"They beat us 49-7 last year," Gibson said. "You just don't make that kind of improvement in a year."

The Razorbacks have scored solid victories over California and Oklahoma State. Tulsa opened its season with a 19-10 loss to Kansas State.

Gibson was pleased with his team's defensive performance. He's hoping the offense will have more punch this week. Tulsa's only touchdown against Kansas State came when Mike Ridley returned the opening kickoff 97 yards.

Gibson says Ridley, a junior college transfer, will probably see more action at tailback this week. He's also hoping that fullback Ed White, who reported for fall practice overweight, will help Tulsa's attack.

Defensively, Tulsa has some outstanding individuals in cornerback Ralph McGill, linebacker Pedro Williams and defensive end Arthur Moore.

McGill is being touted as an All-American candidate. Williams, a 6-foot-3, 222-pounder is an excellent pass rusher as is the 6-foot-5, 230-pound Moore. Williams and Moore are key men in Gibson's promise to get to Arkansas quarterback Joe Ferguson at all costs.

Ferguson isn't apt to fold in the face of a strong rush. More than likely, he'll pick up a blitz and unload the ball quickly.

Arkansas might be looking past Tulsa to the Southwest Conference opener against TCU but Ferguson and the Razorbacks' fast-improving defense should stop the Golden Hurricane.

ARKANSAS 42, TULSA 7. Arkansas State University opened its season last week with a less than impressive 16-14 victory over Wichita State.

The Indians' opponent this week is Northeast Louisiana. ASU's offense is experienced and talented and may break loose at Jonesboro. Besides, the Indians need a solid performance to impress the voters in the college division poll. ASU, the defending national college division champion, is ranked second in the initial poll.

ASU 28, NE LOUISIANA 10. Arkansas Tech, the preseason favorite in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference, opens conference play this week against the University of Arkansas at Monticello.

Tech defeated highly regarded Northeast Oklahoma 18-0 last week while UA-Monticello was trounced by Delta State 37-7. TECH 20, UA-Monticello 7.

The season's percentage is .728. Here are other predictions involving Arkansas college teams: Henderson 10, Southeast Oklahoma 7.

Harding 14, Millsaps 7. Grambling 27, Arkansas AM&N 20.

burgh QB Terry Bradshaw. Dallas 41, Philadelphia 21. Whether it's Craig Morton or Roger Staubach at quarterback, the Cowboys will run wild against Eagle defense that permitted 532 yards in loss to Bengals.

Detroit 48, New England 13. The Lions should be aroused after tough loss to Minnesota, which means trouble for the Patriots and Jim Plunkett. Plunkett gets plunked—often.

San Francisco 38, New Orleans 21—John Brodie doesn't throw four interceptions every week, and that's the only way the Saints can beat the 49ers. Archie Manning also gets plunked—often.

Denver 30, Green Bay 17. The Broncos' front four will push either Zeke Brantkowski or Scott Hunter all over the field. Green Bay Coach Dan Devine better watch his other leg.

Kansas City 24, Houston 21. The Chiefs can't get their offense rolling, but they should be able to handle the Oilers, who appeared totally disorganized in Cleveland shutout.

St. Louis 27, New York Jets 20—Norm Bulaich ran against the Jets so why can't MacArthur Lane and Co.? But it all may resolve around which quarterback hurts his team less, Jets' Al Woodall or Cards' Pete Beathard.

Bobkittens End Up in Second Tie

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Once again the Hope Bobkitten defense showed how tough they are by not allowing any points, but then Arkadelphia didn't allow any either.

Although still undefeated, the Kittens have won only one game in three contests, after tying the Beavers last night in another one of those defensive battles, 0-0.

Kicking off to Arkadelphia, the Kittens slowly gave up ground until the ball was resting on the Beaver 48 with a first down. However the defense stiffened up and forced a punt that settled on Hope's 18 yard line with 4:16 left in the first quarter.

Three plays only netted eight yards and on fourth down Hope punted to the Arkadelphia 47 yard line. However neither team was able to move the ball and moving into the second quarter the Kittens had the ball at the Beaver 43 yard line after an interception by James Robinson at the Hope 25 yard line.

Using the running of halfback Larry Johnson, the Kittens fought their way to the Arkadelphia 30 yard line before being stopped on downs with 4:54 left in the half.

Two more exchanges left the score at halftime, 0-0, and hopefully something would happen the second half, but unfortunately for both teams it didn't.

This time Hope received the kickoff and after a 15 yard runback to their own 46, the Kittens started from there with Johnson picking up five yards on the first play.

With the aid of a 24 yard pass from Robinson to Jud Martindale, the Kittens moved to the Beaver eight yard line before a fourth down pass attempt failed, giving Arkadelphia the ball with 4:25 left in the third quarter.

Getting the ball to the 20, Arkadelphia fumbled and Clay O'Steen slammed the ball carrier down back at the seven yard line. Not able to get the yardage back, a Beaver punt gave Hope the ball with 1:43 left in the quarter.

Moving into the fourth and final quarter, with Hope still in possession, a Bobkitten fumble put Arkadelphia in possession of the ball with five field position at the Kitten 40.

Slowly giving up yardage the defense was pushed all the way to the nine yard line, before a fumble was recovered by O'Steen at the Hope two, with 5:41 left in the game.

Neither team could get anything else going until 38 seconds left in the game with the Kittens setting on their own 28 yard line.

On the first play, Johnson sailed around left end for a 21 yard run and a first down at the Hope 49 yard line. A play later Robinson found Marshall Scott in the clear and hooked up for a 41 yard pass play to the Arkadelphia 10 yard line with just 22 seconds left in the game.

Two plays later a field goal attempt with no time left on the clock failed.

Hope, with a 1-0-2 record now, will travel to Camden next Thursday night for a game at 7:30 p.m.

Major Pegs Colorado over Ohio State;

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Peerless Prognosticator

Egad, friends, there are thrills and chills galore in store for you this weekend as Ohio State plays host to the stampeding Colorado Buffaloes, and Tennessee entertains Auburn in the contest which may decide the South-eastern Conference championship race.

In the match featuring the Big Ten and Big Eight contenders, The Hoople System sees the Colorado triple option offensive as too troublesome for the rebuilding Buckeyes to handle. We predict — kaff-kaff — a triumph for the Buffaloes by a 26-21 count.

At Knoxville, the Tennessee Vols will avenge their lone defeat of last year by containing Auburn's fancy duo, premier passer Pat Sullivan and receiver par-excellence Terry Beasley. And that, dear readers, is no mean achievement. In a spine-tingler the Volunteers will prevail, 28-24—harrumph!

College football's two longest unbeaten streaks will be extended as Toledo rings up its 26th straight at the expense of U. of Tex. (Arlington), 40-10, and Nebraska's bruising Cornhuskers chalk up number 22 by overwhelming undermanned Texas A&M, 45-11.

The Hoople Upset Special of the week pegs the resurgent Pittsburgh Panthers to surprise their Saturday afternoon guests, Oklahoma's Sooners. In a real barnburner — heh-heh — the Panthers will be the winners, 20-13.

On other fronts we foresee easy victories for Georgia Tech over Army, 50-7, Texas over Texas Tech, 21-0, Notre Dame over Purdue, 42-20, and my beloved Yale over Connecticut, 47-14 —Boola-Boola!

Archer and Nevil Lead Robinson

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

ROBINSON, Ill. (AP) — Obscure rookie Dwight Nevil started out in the first round of the Robinson Open Golf Tournament "so early I had to stop and shake the trees to wake up the birds."

But the 27-year-old Texan wasn't complaining. That early start helped him shoot a four-under-par 67 and tie 6-foot-6 George Archer for the first-round lead in this $100,000 event Thursday.

Archer, along with the four players tied at 68—Lebron Harris, Larry Hinson, Mac McLendon and Jim Ferrell—all had early tee times and finished before gusty winds kicked up on the 6,585 yard Crawford County Country Club course and sent scores rocketing.

Troubled Lee Trevino, the biggest name in this tournament, fought those winds and a lack of concentration for a 72, one over par on the par 35-36-71 layout in a community of 7,200 just across the Wabash River from Indiana.

Trevino's mother is seriously ill in Dallas, and he left her side only in time to get here about an hour before his tee time.

"I played pretty good, hit the ball pretty good," said Trevino, the No. 2 money winner with $197,000 this season and holder of the American, Canadian and British Open crowns.

"But I putted like an idiot. I just didn't have my mind on it. I wasn't thinking about golf."

About a dozen players were in a group at 69, all but two of them morning starters. They included Bert Greene, Jim Colbert and Mike Hill.

Defending champion George Knudson of Canada had a fat 75 and must improve if he is to survive the cut for the final two rounds when the field is trimmed at the end of today's round.

Mason Rudolph and J.C. Snead, besides Trevino the only members of America's victorious Ryder Cup team competing here, each had a 73.

Many of the game's major stars—including Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Masters champion Charles Coody—are taking an extended fall break.
